Examiner's statement for reason for allowance

3. Claims 25-36 have been allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement for allowance:

As per claim 25:

The prior art of record taken singly or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest, or render obvious determining a dominant error event for communication channel including effects of said dominant error event on code words in a code space, assigning user values to said code words in said code space, determining a maximum tolerable deviation between user values submitted for transmission at as first end of said communications channel and corresponding user values received at a second end of said communication channel, forming groups of interdependent code words in said code space based on said dominant error event, multiplying the maximum tolerable deviation by two to obtain a maximum number of code words, M , that directly interdepend with any code word, removing code words from said code space, so that no code words having more than M directly interdependent code words remain in said code space. Consequently, claim 25 is allowed over the prior art.

Claims 26-29, which is/are directly or indirectly dependent/s of claim 25 are also allowable over the prior art of record.

As per claim 30:

The prior art of record taken singly or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest, or render obvious determining a dominant error event for communication channel including effects of said dominant error event on code words in a code space, assigning user values to said code words in said code space, determining a maximum tolerable deviation between user values submitted for transmission at as first end of said communications channel and corresponding user values received at a second end of said communication channel, forming groups of interdependent code words in said code space based on said dominant error event, multiplying the maximum tolerable deviation by two to obtain a maximum number of code words, M , that directly interdepend with any code word, removing code words from said code space, so that no code words having more than M directly interdependent code words remain in said code space. Consequently, claim 30 is allowed over the prior art.

Claims 31-36, which is/are directly or indirectly dependent/s of claim 30 are also allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
